PRAYER GUIDE

Proclaim the 7 Things The 21 Day Fast Will Bring into Your Life

1. The number three is used 467 times in the Bible. It's a picture of a covenant (Abraham, Isaac, Jacob: Father, Mother, Child). The number seven is used 735 times. It symbolizes a completed work. There were seven days in a week, seven divisions of the Bible, etc. 7×3 equal 21. The 21 day fast brings a completion, maturity and empowerment to carry out God's covenant with you.
2. On the 21st day of Nisan, God drowned Pharaoh and the entire Egyptian army in the Red Sea. This fast you will see your enemies disappear and be destroyed.
3. The Feast of Tabernacles is on the 21st day of the seventh month. This celebrates how the children of Israel were provided for in the wilderness with a cloud by day, pillar of fire by night, supernatural water and manna falling from heaven. The Bible says "they lacked no good thing" while they were in the wilderness. This means God is supernaturally going to provide for you and bring great prosperity, miracles and signs and wonders.
4. Out of 27 New Testament books, 21 of the books are the Epistles. This is God's revelation to mankind. God is going to give you revelation and direction in every aspect of your life.
5. Frankincense appears 21 times in the Bible. It's a picture of God's anointing and presence in your life. It was often used to anoint people for healing. This fast will bring a new anointing and empowerment for signs, wonders, healing and miracles.
6. The names of "James the Great" and "James the Less" appear 21 times in the Bible. James is the Greek for Jacob. Jacob was someone who wrongfully took the place of Esau. God called him a supplanter. Later God changed Jacob's name to Israel, "a prince with God." God is making you a prince or princess with heaven during these 21 days of fasting.
7. The name "Father" is mentioned 21 times in the Bible. The father is the head of the family and denotes a position and authority. This fast will elevate you to another position and give you great authority over Satan.
